To carry out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee met five times during fiscal year 2006. The Board of Directors has determined that the members of the Audit Committee are "independent" as defined in the NASDAQ Stock Market's Marketplace Rule 4200.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

The responsibilities of the Audit Committee, which are set forth in the Audit Committee Charter, include providing oversight to the Company's financial reporting process through periodic meetings with the Company's independent accountants and management to review accounting, auditing, internal controls and financial reporting matters. The Audit Committee is also responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the Company's independent auditors. The management of the Company is responsible for the preparation and integrity of the financial reporting information and related systems of internal controls. The Audit Committee, in carrying out its role, relies on the Company's senior management, including senior financial management, and its independent accountants.

The Audit Committee has implemented procedures to ensure that during the course of each fiscal year it devotes the attention that it deems necessary or appropriate to each of the matters assigned to it under the Audit Committee's charter. To carry out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee met five times during fiscal year 2006.

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities relating to the quality and integrity of the Company's financial reports and financial reporting processes and systems of internal controls. Management of the Company has primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including maintenance of the Company's system of internal controls. The Company retains independent auditors who are responsible for conducting an independent audit of the Company's financial statements, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and issuing a report thereon.

In performing its duties, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee has also discussed with the Company's independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards ("SAS") No. 61, "Communications with Audit Committee." SAS No. 61 requires the independent auditors to provide the Audit Committee with additional information regarding the scope and results of their audit of the Company's financial statements, including with respect to (i) their responsibility under auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, (ii) significant accounting policies, (iii) management judgments and estimates, (iv) any significant audit adjustments, (v) any disagreements with management, and (vi) any difficulties encountered in performing the audit. In 2006, the Company did not pay any fees to any third party to assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees.

Executive Compensation

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

This compensation discussion and analysis describes and analyzes the material elements of compensation awarded to, earned by, or paid to each of our executive officers who served as named executive officers during the last completed fiscal year. This compensation discussion and analysis focuses on the information contained in the following tables and related footnotes and narrative for primarily the last completed fiscal year, but we also describe compensation actions taken before or after the last completed fiscal year to the extent it enhances the understanding of our executive compensation disclosure.

Prior to June 13, 2006, our Board of Directors oversaw and administered our executive compensation program. The Compensation Committee currently oversees the design and administration of our executive compensation program.

The principal elements of our executive compensation program are base salary, annual incentive compensation award, stock options and other benefits and perquisites. Our other benefits and perquisites consist of automobile payments, related automobile costs, prescription benefits and reimbursement for Medicare payments. Our philosophy is to position the aggregate of these elements at a level that is commensurate with our size and sustained performance.

Compensation Program Objectives and Philosophy

The objectives of our compensation program are to:

- a. Attract, motivate and retain qualified and dedicated executive officers.
- b. Retain talented executives and motivate them to achieve business objectives that will enhance stockholder value.
- c. Provide our executive officers with cash incentives to further the interests of the Company and our stockholders.

Generally, the compensation of our executive officers is composed of a base salary, an annual incentive compensation award and equity awards in the form of stock options. In setting base salaries, the Board generally reviewed (and going forward the Compensation Committee will review) the individual contributions of the particular executive. The annual incentive compensation award for 2006 is determined by terms set forth in each executive officer's employment agreement. In addition, stock options may be granted to provide the opportunity for long-term compensation based upon the performance of our stock over time.

The following is the Compensation Committee's policy for persons who do not have employment agreements with the Company:

The Compensation Committee is responsible for determining the annual salary and incentive compensation awards, stock awards and other compensation of executive officers who do not have employment agreements as well as stock awards and other compensation of executive officers who have employment agreements. In its deliberations regarding compensation of executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the following factors:

- a. Company performance, both separately and in relation to similar companies;
- b. The individual performance, experience and scope of responsibilities of each executive officer;
- c. Compensation and stock award information disclosed in the proxy statements of other companies;

- d. Historical compensation levels and stock awards at the Company;
- e. The overall competitive environment for executives and the level of compensation necessary to attract and retain executive talent; and
- f. The recommendations of management.

Compensation Process

Prior to June 13, 2006, our Board approved the compensation of our named executive officers, including the terms of their employment agreements. Going forward, for each of our named executive officers, the Compensation Committee will, in accordance with the terms and conditions of any then effective employment agreements, review and approve all elements of compensation taking into consideration recommendations from our chief executive officer (for compensation other than his own), as well as competitive market guidance provided at the request of the Compensation Committee.

The Company's compensation program for executives consists of three elements:

- a. base salaries
- b. performance-based annual incentive compensation awards
- c. periodic grants of stock options

Base Salaries

The salaries for the executive officers are designed to retain qualified and dedicated executive officers. The Compensation Committee reviews salary recommendations made by the Company's Chief Executive Officer (other than for executive officers covered by employment agreements), and evaluates individual responsibility levels, performance and length of service.

Annual Incentive Compensation Awards

Annual incentive compensation awards provide the Company with a means of rewarding performance based upon the attainment of corporate profitability during the year. Mr. Pagano and Mr. Salek, pursuant to their employment contracts, receive annual incentive compensation awards based upon a percentage of earnings of the Company's subsidiaries. Mr. Pagano and Mr. Salek accrued an incentive compensation award of $260,109 and $30,958, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Stock Options

Stock options may be granted to provide the opportunity for long-term compensation based upon the performance of our stock over time. During 2006, no stock options were granted to the Company's employees, or the executive officers.

Employee Benefit and Health Plans

The Company has a 401(k) plan, which covers substantially all employees. Participants in the plan may contribute a percentage of compensation, but not in excess of the maximum allowed under the Internal Revenue Code. The plan provides for matching contributions up to a maximum of 3% of employees' qualified wages.

The Company makes available life and health insurance for full time employees. Both the Company and the employees contribute to the payment of this plan in accordance with a published schedule as described in the Company's employment manual.

Members of the Board of Directors, other than those employed by the Company, received a fee of $12,000 annually consisting of an annual retainer of $8,000 and a fee of $1,000 for each meeting of the Board, limited to $4,000 per annum payable in advance in four equally quarterly installments.

Additionally, effective April 1, 2006, E. Bruce Fredrikson's annual retainer fee for serving as a Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee increased from $8,000 to $18,000. The fee is payable in $4,500 installments in advance of each quarter.

Members of the Board of Directors receive no fees if they are employed by the Company.

On December 6, 2006 (the "Grant Date"), the Company granted ten-year options to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $1.85 per share to each of the following Directors: E. Bruce Fredrikson, Stuart H. Lubow, Ronald H. Miller and Phillip Siegel. The option to each Director was immediately vested for 10,000 shares and will vest for 5,000 additional shares on each of the first three anniversaries of the Grant Date if the optionee then continues as a Director. The options were granted in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. On January 22, 2007, Phillip Siegel resigned as a Director and on such date forfeited his 5,000 options that would have vested on each of the first three anniversaries of the Grant Date. On March 23, 2007, Mr. Siegel forfeited his 10,000 vested options. Prior to his resignation as Director, Mr. Siegel served as Chairman of the Compensation Committee and as a member of the Audit and Nominating Committees.

Messrs. Koon, Rose and Sussman resigned as Directors of the Company on April 17, 2006 and each received other compensation in the amount of $3,000 for and in consideration of their duties and service to the Company.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Company did not have a Compensation Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors performing equivalent functions until June 13, 2006. Prior to this date, decisions regarding compensation of named executive officers of the Company were made by the Board of Directors. Two of the company's executive officers, Bernard Korn and William Pagano, were Directors of the Company. Mr. Korn was the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company until his resignation as Chief Executive Officer, Director and Chairman of the Board on April 17, 2006. Until June 13, 2006, each of these individuals participated in deliberations of the Board during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 concerning named executive officer compensation, except that they abstained from deliberations and voting regarding their own compensation.

On June 13, 2006, the Board of Directors appointed Phillip Siegel as Chairman of the Compensation Committee and E. Bruce Fredrikson and Stuart H. Lubow to serve on the Compensation Committee. On August 8, 2006 the Board of Directors adopted a Compensation Committee Charter. On January 22, 2007, Phillip Siegel resigned as a Director.

Compensation Committee Report

The following report of the Compensation Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management and recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, for filing with the SEC. Phillip Siegel resigned as a Director on January 22, 2007, has not served on the Compensation Committee since that date, and did not participate in these recommendations.

PROPOSAL 2

RELATIONSHIP WITH AND RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Effective as of April 18, 2007, the Company dismissed Weiser, LLP (“Weiser”) as the Company's certified public accountants. Additionally, effective as of April 18, 2007, the Company engaged Eisner LLP (“Eisner”) as the Company's principal accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007, subject to ratification of this appointment by the stockholders of the Company. The Company's decision to dismiss Weiser and engage Eisner was recommended by the Company's Audit Committee and approved by the Company's Board of Directors.

Weiser reported on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ending December 31, 2006 and 2005. For these periods and up to April 18, 2007, there were no disagreements with Weiser on any matter of accounting principle or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to the satisfaction of Weiser, would have caused it to make reference thereto in its report on the financial statements for such years.

The reports of Weiser on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, and through the subsequent interim period preceding the decision to change independent accountants, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted Eisner regarding either the application of accounting principles as to a specified completed or proposed transaction, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or other information provided that was considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to an accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issue. Eisner has not provided to the Company a written report or oral advice regarding such principles or audit opinion.

During the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, and through the subsequent interim period preceding the decision to change independent accountants, there were no reportable events as defined by Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

We do not anticipate that any representatives from Weiser will be present at the meeting.

In the event that the stockholders fail to ratify this appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider its selection of audit firm, but may decide not to change its selection. Even if this appointment is ratified, our Board of Directors, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a new independent accounting firm at any time during the year, if the Board believes that such a change would be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF EISNER, LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2007.
